

Fish Fin City News

An adverb tells you more about a verb. It can describe how someone is doing something. For example: the big lion roared angrily. 'Angrily' is the adverb, it tells you how the lion roared.

Can you find all the adverbs in the story? Put a circle around them.

Fish Fin City is a wonderful place where the fish live happily. The fish live peacefully with the Mer People. Mermaids swish their tails grandly, whilst Mermen swim gracefully in and out of the coral. Olly Octopus lives near the shipwreck. He enjoys swimming lazily around the seaweed. Small fish swim wildly in and out of the rocks. They chase one another quickly.

Read this news story.

Theatre News in Fish Fin City

Colin Codfish is starring in a new play. He told us happily how lucky he was to get the role of Sharky. "I am so pleased with my role," he told reporters enthusiastically. "He's great in the role," Jerry Jellyfish told us excitedly. "He takes acting really seriously."

List all the adverbs you find here.

_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____
_____	_____

Challenge

Can you write your own report for Fish Fin City News about Olly Octopus who has just won a prize for singing? Here are some adverbs you should use in your report.

bustily	excitedly
proudly	nicely
fairly	quickly
delightedly	sweetly

Put a circle around all the adverbs you can find in this story.

Shark Attack in Fish Fin City

Dangerous sharks attacked nastily at the Fish Pod Restaurant. Customers said they entered noisily and began throwing food around carelessly. Shocked diners watched helplessly as the sharks swam around angrily. They left laughing loudly and were later arrested quickly by Fish Fin City's Police Force.