

133. Wanted!

- ◆ Another activity for practising and using vocabulary for parts of the body is to design a 'wanted' poster for an imaginary or, even more fun, a real person in the school.
- ◆ Display the posters, and don't forget to add a suitable reward for the apprehension of this person!

134. Poetry

- ◆ Simple poetry can be written using familiar vocabulary perhaps supplemented with words from a dictionary.
- ◆ Try giving the children a simple format to follow such as starting each line alternately with 'Hello' and 'Goodbye'.
- ◆ You could provide a simple poem in the target language and suggest that the children replace items of vocabulary in the poem with their own words.
