

25. Sweet pea

Challenge

Pairs of children sit back to back with a tennis ball suspended between them. They must endeavour to stand without the ball dropping to the floor.

Tip

Participants should start with their legs outstretched in front of them. Hands are not permitted to touch the floor.

Development

If successful, children can try to sit down again and repeat the challenge without repositioning the tennis ball.