

The bubble that manages to break free and escape

Title: _____

"It's so lovely to be free," the bubble thought with relief.

Where?

Use simile and personification in your description. What does the bubble look like? How is the bubble feeling?

Ideas: water bubble in a saucepan... air bubble in lemonade... soap bubble in bath...

Vocabulary: hot, cramped, claustrophobic, depressed, sad, restless, agitated, keyed up, translucent, lustrous, opaque, luminous, etc.

What happened next? How did it break free?

Ideas:

Grew bigger?

Thicker?

Stronger?

Changed colour?

Thought powerful thoughts?

Then what happened? After that? Then? Meanwhile?

Ideas: into the garden... high up into the sky... over the sea... to a different country...

Vocabulary: floated, skimmed across, gradually gained momentum

What happened next? After that? Then?

What did the bubble see? hear? smell? touch?

How was it feeling as it went on its journey?

Did it end happily for the bubble or not?
