

Holiday disaster!

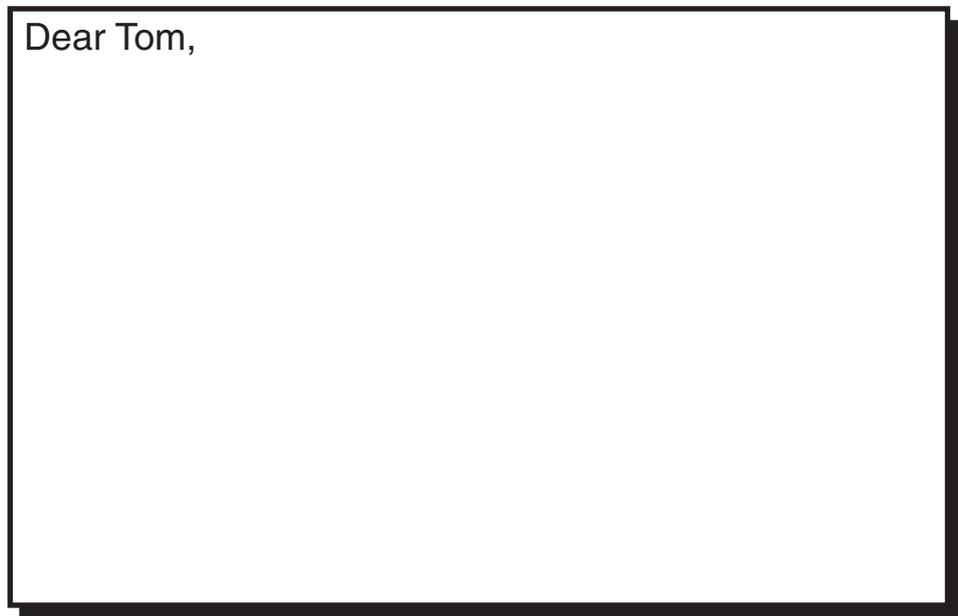

Ben has booked a holiday in Moonsville. First there is a delay in the rocket launching. Then the crater he is staying at is dirty and noisy. He is promised air-floating and comet-jumping but they are cancelled.

Write his postcards back to Earth, telling what happened.

Dear Mum,

Dear Tom,

Helpline

Write as much as you can on each postcard.

It doesn't have to be in proper sentences.

Add-on

Write a letter to the Astro-Air Holiday Company, asking for Ben's money back.
