RESOURCE SHEET
1.4A

Let me take you round our camp and show you what some of my friends are doing ...

Pelagus stat.

Pelagus is my horse. His name sounds a bit like Pegasus, the flying horse. I pretend Pelagus can fly, but for now he is standing. I think he wishes he could fly too.

Thea scribit.

Like me, Thea is a child who lives with the group of actors. She is very clever and can read and write fluently. Which do you think she is doing here?

Tarquinus bibit.

Tarquinus is our best actor. He always wears a mask when he is on stage. Here he is drinking some water. It was a good idea to take his mask off first.

Stella saltat.

Stella is a stray dog who follows our group around. She stands on her back legs and dances if we give her food.
