

Gloritania Flower Show

Can you transform the adjectives in the pencils to adverbs. Don't forget to follow the rules!

1. happy  _____
2. idle  _____
3. noble  _____
4. clumsy  _____
5. miserable  _____
6. dreamy  _____
7. feeble  _____
8. horrible  _____
9. cheeky  _____
10. hungry  _____
11. capable  _____
12. amiable  _____

There are more rules to follow when changing other words from adjectives to adverbs.
 If the word ends with 'le' chop off the 'le' and add -ly, for example: gentle – gently.
 If a word ends with a 'y' chop off the 'y', add an i then add -ly. For example: happy – happily.

Transform the words in brackets to adverbs.

Giant Grumbleweed is a very serious giant. He takes his gardening very (serious) _____. His garden shed is amazingly neat. Everything is put on shelves (tidy) _____ and all his bottles and jars are labelled (neat) _____. Unfortunately, the Dinkle Rats steal (crafty) _____ from his shed. This week has been hectic for Giant Grumbleweed. He has been running around (busy) _____ getting ready for the Gloritania Flower Show. Giants from all over Giantania love to enter the show. They spend months preparing (happy) _____, cultivating their plants and flowers (merry) _____. At the show, Giant Grumbleweed stomps around (heavy) _____, checking out the other giants' produce. Giant Grumbleweed is showing his KissKiss bushes which wave (cheery) _____ to people as they walk by and blow kisses! When they are ignored, their blue flowers droop (dreary) _____.

Challenge

Giant Dogwort is getting ready for the Gloritania Flower Show. Change the following adjectives to adverbs. Turn the sheet over and, using both adjectives and adverbs, describe how Giant Dogwort is preparing himself and his plants for the flower show.

- | | | | |
|----------|-------|----------|----------|
| crazy | messy | loveable | noble |
| flexible | soft | lazy | sensible |