

Mini Quiz

A. Identify the subjunctive sentences with a tick in the box.

1. If I were a ship at sea, I would be pleased to see the lighthouse.	<input type="checkbox"/>
2. If I were the old lighthouse keeper, I would take care of the lighthouse.	<input type="checkbox"/>
3. The lighthouse is now a national monument.	<input type="checkbox"/>
4. I wish it were possible to rescue everyone at sea.	<input type="checkbox"/>
5. I propose that the lighthouse be renovated.	<input type="checkbox"/>
6. I wish I were able to fly like a seagull.	<input type="checkbox"/>

B. Distinguish between formal and informal writing with either an 'F' or an 'I' in the box.

My Dear Captain Leechwell,
 How kind of you to take the trouble to call. I would be delighted to accept your kind offer.
 Your old shipmate,
 Godly Harrington

1.

Honoured Sir,
 I am in receipt of your consignment of special goods. Every care will be taken in the distribution to our respected clients.
 I remain, Dear Sir,
 Yours most respectfully,
 Mr Huntley

2.

Hi Liz
 How are you doing? Great to see you last week! Keep in touch!
 Loads of love
 Ashley xxx

3.

Dear Sir/Madam,
 Thank you for your letter of the 18th March, 2029. We note its contents, thereof.
 Yours faithfully,
 Desmond Little Esq.

4.

C. Add an appropriate question tag to the phrases below.

You've got the goods, _____.

It was yours, _____.

I did do that, _____.

That was right, _____.