

Robots

Questions

1. Tick Yes or No.

| | Yes | No |
|--|-----|----|
| A. There are five robots. | | |
| B. One robot has numbers on its tummy. | | |
| C. All the robots have wheels. | | |
| D. Tigwig has three legs. | | |
| E. Zizz has four arms | | |
| F. Zob has one leg. | | |

2. How many arms does Foz have? Tick one.

- A. four C. three
B. two D. one

3. Which robot has spiky shoulders? Tick one.

- A. Zob C. Zizz
B. Tigwig D. Foz

4. Which robot has only one leg? Tick one.

- A. Tigwig C. Foz
B. Zizz D. Zob

5. What does Zizz have on his tummy? Tick one.

- A. nothing C. shapes
B. dots D. numbers

6. Which robot has triangles for feet?

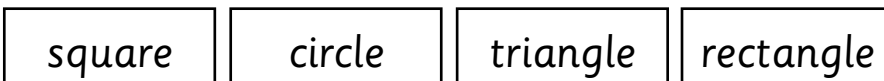

7. How many eyes does Zizz have?

8. How many arms does Foz have? Answer with a full sentence.

Word work

1. Look at the picture. Write one label in each space to show what shape the arrows are pointing to.

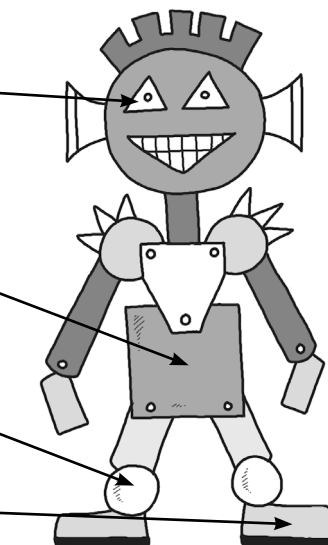

A.

B.

C.

D.

Extension work

Class Discussion

1. Which robot do you like best. Why?
2. Why do you think Zizz looks cross?
3. What do you think Zob does with all its arms?
4. Who do you think will fix the robots if they go wrong?

Pair or Small Group Discussion

5. The robots live with people and help by doing jobs for them. Make up jobs for each of the robots.
6. Invent a reason why Zizz has numbers on its tummy.
7. If you could add a new feature to Foz, what would it be and what would it do?
8. Who do you think invented the robots?

Create/Design

9. Create a brand new robot.
10. Design a bed for one of the robots to sleep in.
11. Design a car for one of the robots to travel around in.

Write

12. Write a story about a robot which goes wrong and causes all sorts of trouble.
13. Zizz looks cross. Imagine you are Zizz and explain what has happened to make you cross.
14. Choose two of the robots and make up a little conversation between them. Use speech bubbles to show they are talking.