

Inference The Worst Witch

1. How are Mildred and her kitten the same?

Tick one:

They are both really good at broomstick riding.
They both really enjoy broomstick riding.
They both fell off the broomstick a lot when they were first learning.

2. How do you know Maud's kitten was not enjoying the ride on the broomstick?

3. How does Maud show she cares about the kittens?

Tick one:

She knows it must be hard for them to hang on by their claws.
She makes them practise over and over.
She speaks severely to the kittens.

4. Circle two words that tell you Mildred felt happy when she was finally able to fly her broomstick with her kitten.

The kitten's astounded face peeped out of the bag as Mildred flew delightedly round the yard.

"Look, Maud!" she called from ten feet up in the air.

"That's cheating!" said Maud, looking at the satchel.

Mildred flew back and landed on the ground laughing.
